

Please fill out the handout with what you think are the correct answers.

1. Name four metaphors Dr. Brown uses to describe a worldview.
Map, contact lens, jigsaw puzzle lid, story
2. True or False: Many teens have not yet chosen a worldview.
False
3. True or False: According to Dr. Brown, people usually give a lot of thought to their worldview.
False
4. If the first role of a worldview is an explanation of the world, what is the second?
Application to life
5. If the second role of a worldview is "a view FOR the world," what is the first?
A view OF the world
6. Name the two metaphors we used last week for these two roles.
Artist's painting and architect's blueprint
7. What are the three worldviews that most people fall into?
Naturalism, Transcendentalism, and Theism
8. Which worldview says that all of life is entirely physical with no god?
Naturalism
9. Which worldview says that there is no supernatural?
Naturalism
10. Which worldview says that a god is not a personal being, but an impersonal force which can be utilized by humans?
Transcendentalism
11. Which worldview says that a god created the world?
Theism
12. Which one of the worldviews does Buddhism fall into?
Transcendentalism
13. Which worldview says that "we're merely an episode between two oblivions"?
Naturalism
14. Which worldview says that everything is merely spiritual, there is no god out there, and god is everything?
Transcendentalism
15. Which worldview describes Islam, Judaism, and Christianity?
Theism
16. What distinguishing factor does Dr. Brown mention that separates Judaism, Islam, and Christianity?
Jesus Christ
17. Finish this sentence: "Don't find a worldview that fits you; find a worldview that _____."
fits the world

Tie-breaker question:

Finish this sentence: "You may not live what you profess, but you will _____."
live what you believe