

Please fill out the handout with what you think are the correct answers.

1. Name four metaphors Dr. Brown uses to describe a worldview.
2. True or False: Many teens have not yet chosen a worldview.
3. True or False: According to Dr. Brown, people usually give a lot of thought to their worldview.
4. If the first role of a worldview is an explanation of the world, what is the second?
5. If the second role of a worldview is "a view FOR the world," what is the first?
6. Name the two metaphors we used last week for these two roles.
7. What are the three worldviews that most people fall into?
8. Which worldview says that all of life is entirely physical with no god?
9. Which worldview says that there is no supernatural?
10. Which worldview says that a god is not a personal being, but an impersonal force which can be utilized by humans?
11. Which worldview says that a god created the world?
12. Which one of the worldviews does Buddhism fall into?
13. Which worldview says that "we're merely an episode between two oblivions"?
14. Which worldview says that everything is merely spiritual, there is no god out there, and god is everything?
15. Which worldview describes Islam, Judaism, and Christianity?
16. What distinguishing factor does Dr. Brown mention that separates Judaism, Islam, and Christianity?
17. Finish this sentence: "Don't find a worldview that fits you; find a worldview that _____."

Tie-breaker question:

Finish this sentence: "You may not live what you profess, but you will _____."